All-Access Tournament Calendar

The All-Access Tournament Calendar continues to evolve and improve as we hope to create a tool for all levels of golfer in the Pacific Northwest! Recently, we added the ability to sort tournaments not only by club and date, but also by tournament type!

Senior, team, couples, charitable, juniors, 9-hole, are just some of the sortable categories to define your event by. We hope you continue to share this tool with our membership as not only a way of finding tournaments, but also to help draw attention to your club's events. The Tacoma News Tribune recently touched on how up-and-coming amateur Casey Adams uses the tool to find events for his summer schedule.

PNGA Championships

Championship season is in full swing and this week it's the Juniors' turn on stage as The Home Course hosts the PNGA Junior Boys' and Junior Girls' Championships. Click here for Boys' scores and here for Girls' scores.

The PNGA Senior Team introduces a Super Senior division to both the Men's and Women's ranks this year. The popular event returns to Gold Mountain Golf Club September 19-23 and registration is still open! Click here for a full schedule of events and more information on PNGA Championships.

Boeing Classic - Volunteers Needed

The Boeing Classic continues to look for volunteers for the 11th edition of the event. The Boeing Classic is the only annual professional tour event in the Greater Seattle area and has an impressive reputation for its strong field and community involvement. Held each summer at TPC Snoqualmie Ridge, the event takes place August 22-28 this year.

There are 19 volunteer committees to choose from, including broadcast support, marshalling, driving range, long drive contest, Pro-Am, walking scoring, standard bearing, scoreboard operations, and many more to become involved with.
