PNGA Club Representative Newsletter

February 2017

Greetings!

Greetings from the PNGA! It is a very busy time in our offices as we gear up for the 2017 golf season! We are committed to bringing you this newsletter every other month with the hopes of delivering relevant and important content to you throughout the year.

We hope to see you throughout the season, and specifically at the upcoming PNGA Annual Meeting in April! If we can be of any assistance please don't hesitate to contact us.

Sincerely,
Shari Jacobson & Torrin Westwood - PNGA Membership Dept.

First Green News

Golf Industry Show Offers First Green Workshop

Each year, golf course superintendents attend a national professional development conference called the Golf Industry Show (GIS). Next week, the conference is being held in Orlando, Fla., and First Green is providing an interactive all-day training session on Feb. 6 that includes a golf course visit to see a First Green field trip in action. This is a great opportunity to get the information needed to host a First Green field trip. For more information, visit the GCSAA website.
